Welcome

We wish to welcome you to services at the Pearl Street church of Christ. If you are a visitor with us today, know that you are an honored guest. We invite you to join us each time we meet together for worship and Bible study. If you have any questions about any aspect of our worship service, or the church of Christ in general, we would love to answer those questions for you.

Just A Thought

The gifts of the Master are these: freedom, life, hope, new direction, transformation, and intimacy with God. If the cross was the end of the story, we would have no hope. But the cross isn't the end. Jesus didn't escape from death; He conquered it and opened the way to heaven for all who will dare to believe. The truth of this moment, if we let it sweep over us, is stunning. It means Jesus really is who He claimed to be, we are really as lost as He said we are, and He really is the only way for us to intimately and spiritually connect with God again.” Steven James

Weekly Memory Verse

1 Peter 2:9, ⁹But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Romans 12:18, English Standard Version.

¹⁸If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

Paul's Portion

We have a guest article today.

Peanuts, caramel, nougat, and milk chocolate—words I have seen many times above the label of my favorite candy bar. Inside the wrapper, I see the delicious milk chocolate, poured over the top in such a way as to leave behind that distinctive, tantalizing ripple-effect that draws me in for a quick bite. Upon closer examination, I can see the peanuts—no problem there, not allergic. I can also see the caramel—who doesn't like that? But, for years, the nougat has escaped my attention. What is a nougat? While I am not a confectioner, I did some research and discovered that a nougat is a candy made from sugar or honey, nuts, and egg white. The nougat is harder to find; but, here's a hint: everything that is not peanut, caramel, or chocolate is nougat. Don't take my word for it—do the research yourself. I highly recommend it. The nougat is the foundation for everything else—the caramel, the peanuts, and the milk chocolate. While the nougat is hardly noticed, it brings all the flavors of the candy bar together in a powerful way.

Similarly, the positive impact of the church on the world is multiplied when all the flavors are brought together in a harmonious fashion. Our place in the church has been designated by God Himself. “He placed the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He desired” (1 Corinthians 12:18). We are not in competition with one another; we are members of the same body—the body of Christ (Rm. 12:4-5). Therefore, we should “pursue the things which make for peace and the building up of one another” (Rm. 14:19). Like a sweet nougat, we should be willing to lose ourselves in bringing others together for the greater good of the body.

While peanuts, caramel, and milk chocolate are wonderful ingredients in and of themselves; their impact is incomplete until all the flavors are blended together on a proper foundation—the foundation of selfless love (1 Corinthians 12:31-14:1).
